

November 22, 1889

Mr. William H. Zick died Thursday, Nov. 21, at his home seven miles northwest of Groton, aged forty-seven years. Mr. Zick was born in Prussia Regirings-Bezirk, Brainsberg, Germany. And came to this country in 1867, making his first home in Wisconsin. He was sick for many years with asthma, but during the last six months he had been suffering very much, until Thursday morning death relieved him of his long affliction. Mr. Zick leaves a wife, four sons and two daughters. He was a loyal citizen a good husband and a careful father. Funeral service held in the German Evangelical church conducted by Rev. F. G. Sahr. 11-22-1889